*While other interest expenses are listed in the allowable use section of the law, they are not mentioned in the forgivable loan provision

Phase III: Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (the "CARES Act") 2/2

Below is a summary of key details related to business owner relief as part of "Phase III." Many details are yet to be finalized.

Type:	Credit Support for Other Affected Businesses (other than Small Businesses)
Overview	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Secretary of the Treasury (the "Secretary") is given discretion to determine which businesses will be beneficiaries of the credit support but likely to include businesses that would otherwise not qualify for the Small Business Interruption Loans assistance (e.g., businesses with more than 500 employees) The Secretary will be authorized to make loans, guarantees and other investments (e.g., an equity stake or warrants) in support of eligible businesses as well as states and municipalities not to exceed $500 billion An independent oversight committee will oversee the program
Loan Amount and Terms	Maturity not to exceed 5 years . The Secretary is given similar discretion on determining the terms related to rates, underwriting and other terms & conditions. These loans are not forgivable.
Compensation Limits	Businesses that receive loans or guarantees under this provision will be required to agree to certain caps on compensation and severance payments for employees whose compensation exceeded $425,000 in the 2019 calendar year. Employees with compensation exceeding $425,000 will be capped at the 2019 levels and any severance pay is not to exceed twice the maximum compensation received in 2019. For officers or employees who earned more than $3 million in 2019 annual salary, their compensation would be capped at $3 million plus 50% of the amount exceeding $3 million in 2019 (example an individual earned $5 million in 2019 would be capped at $3 million + 50% x ($5 million - $3 million) = $4 million cap) These caps will be in place for the period while the loan is outstanding plus an additional 12 months
Buybacks & Dividends	Companies may not conduct stock buybacks nor provide dividends nor capital distributions to investors while the loan is outstanding plus an additional 12 months
Employment Levels	Until September 30, 2020, companies are to maintain levels of employment as of March 24, 2020 to the extent that is practical and in no case is the company to reduce employment by more than 10%
For 500-10,000 employees	A carve out for medium sized businesses indicates loans should be made available with up to 2% APR

Paycheck Protection Program Quick Guide: Payroll and Loan Forgiveness

Forgivable loans are for 8 weeks from origination, but employment retention is through June 30, 2020

Loan size the lesser of $10m or 2.5x Average Monthly¹ Payroll + EIDL²

To calculate monthly payroll, include these...

For business owners with employees:

- salary, wage, commission, or similar compensation
- payment of cash tip or equivalent
- payment for vacation, parental, family, medical, or sick leave
- allowance for dismissal or separation
- payment required for the provisions of group health care benefits, including insurance premiums
- payment of any retirement benefit
- payment of state or local tax assessed on employee compensation

For independent contractors or sole proprietors:

- wage, commission, income, net earnings from self-employment, or similar compensation and that is in an amount that is not more than $100,000 in one year, as pro-rated for the Covered Period

...and exclude these

- the portion of compensation of an individual employee in excess of an annual salary of $100,000, as prorated for the Covered Period
- taxes for payroll, railroad retirement and income
- compensation of an employee whose principal place of residence is outside of the United States
- qualified sick and family leave wages for which a credit is allowed due to the Families First Coronavirus Response Act

- The Covered Period begins on February 15, 2020 and ends on June 30, 2020
- Apply no later than June 30, 2020

What can be forgiven?

Forgive these costs...

- payroll costs (see left)
- costs that were established before February 15, 2020
 - mortgage interest obligation
 - rent on a leasing agreement
 - utilities: electricity, gas, water, transportation, phone or internet
- additional wages paid to tipped employees
- Note: any loan forgiveness is not to exceed the loan principal

...for 8 Weeks from loan origination

How could forgiveness be reduced? What if I re-hire?

Based on Employees...

X

Average Monthly Full Time Equivalents (FTEs) for the 8 weeks

÷

Based on business type:

• Established: Average FTEs	2/15 - 6/30/2019
• New: Average FTEs	1/1 - 2/29/2020
• Seasonal: Average FTEs	2/15 - 6/30/2019

..and Based on Salaries

For any employee who did not earn during any pay period in 2019 wages at an annualized rate more than $100,000, the amount of any reduction in wages that is greater than 25% compared to their most recent full quarter.

Reductions in employment or wages that occur between February 15, 2020, and April 26, 2020 shall not reduce forgiveness if by June 30, 2020 the borrower eliminates the reductions by re-hiring employees or restoring wages

Re-Hires

¹ The average monthly periods are as described in the "how could forgiveness be reduced" section except for established companies which is for the full year prior to the loan origination
² EIDL = Economic Injury Disaster Loan's outstanding balance that was originated from January 31, 2020 and that is being refinanced

SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan ("EIDL") Program

The EIDL program is a low interest, non-forgivable loan offered by the SBA and different than Phase III's PPP program.

Can I get both an EIDL and a PPP loan?	Yes as long as they don't pay for the same expenses. Alternatively, an existing EIDL loan can be refinanced into a PPP loan. Exact details around these rules are to be provided.
Loan size:	Up to $2,000,000
Eligibility	Small businesses, including ESOPs, sole props, independent contractors and non-profits affected by the coronavirus all U.S. states and territories
Interest rate:	2.75% for nonprofits 3.75% for small businesses
Term length:	Will vary, but up to 30 years
Usage:	Accounts payable, fixed debts, payroll, and other bills due to the virus
Emergency Grant	An emergency grant of $10,000 can be provided even before loan approval if used to cover certain payroll, supply chain and other specified costs
What you'll need to provide	Supporting documentation could include the business's most recent tax returns, a personal financial statement and a schedule of liabilities that lists all your current debts. Loans less than $200,000 do not require a personal guarantee
